

What do people come into your library for?

- Wi-Fi or computers
- Company
- Family history
- Books!
- Books, audiobooks, DVDs
- To read newspapers
- Technology help
- Access the internet and use computers
- Programs
- Job searching
- Books!
- Pick up hold items; reader/watcher advisory
- Borrow all kinds of stuff
- Assistance with technology
- Place to work
- Bathroom
- Meeting room
- Tech assistance
- Government information
- Sometimes we may never know
- Faxing to JFS
- Programming
- Relationship

- Quiet place to relax and read what they want
- Job applications online
- Programs, learn how to do things with others
- Computer/printer access
- Entertainment, computers, printing, faxing, bathroom, programs
- Kid programs
- Adult fiction, mostly.
- Story time
- It may be a warm place in winter, cool in summer
- Social time
- To be around other people
- Buy books
- Get directions
- To connect with folks and staff
- Journal articles for student reports
- Connection
- Information
- Meet a need
- Connection
- Access
- Print boarding passes
- Tax forms!
- Entertainment, education, socialization
- Requesting a book they normally can't find.

- Programs, story time to craft programs to tech sessions
- Public library amenities -- often overlapping with shared space with a college library ... every day is different; usual needs plus special events
- we have other providers that use our space weekly, one is called J.U.S.T. Training they assist people on how to write resumes and cover letters, what to do in interviews
- Service Canada our federal agency for Unemployment, pension info, etc.
- Collaborative space, one-on-one help, coffee
- Business resources
- To read the New York Times, Investor's Business Daily, Denver Business Journal, etc.
- To read Dallas Morning News, adult fiction, and literature.
- Genealogy research
- Find obituaries; magazine articles (current to a year old)
- Learning foreign languages (Spanish, mostly).